A 2D bar chart consisting of two groups of horizontal bars. The left group contains 40 bars of varying lengths, with the longest bar reaching approximately the 30% mark on the y-axis. The right group contains 20 bars, with the longest bar reaching approximately the 70% mark on the y-axis. All bars are filled with black and have thin black outlines. The bars are arranged in two distinct clusters, separated by a gap in the middle of the chart.
